KEY BIBLE VERSES TO HEAR AND REMEMBER

Jesus said: ‘Let the children come to me, and do not stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these’.
Mark 10:14 GNB

Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. This saying is true and it can be trusted.
1 Timothy 1:15 CEV

If you confess that Jesus is Lord and believe that God raised him from death, you will be saved.
Romans 10:9 GNB
God’s Son became a human being to save the world

SURVEY  Conduct a survey in a local shopping centre. Use a multiple-choice format and ask people: Who do you think Jesus is?  (1a)

JESUS WAS A JEW [1]  Discuss with students:
- Where was Jesus born?
- What nationality would Jesus have been?
Locate Israel and Bethlehem on a world map. Tell students that Christian belief is centred around Jesus Christ who was born about 2000 years ago in the town of Bethlehem in the country of Israel/Palestine. Israel is the homeland of the Jewish people. Students brainstorm in groups what they know about Jewish people and the Jewish religion.
Discuss with students:
- What do you know about living in a Jewish community?
- What questions do you have about Jesus?
Go on to investigate the experiences and life of Jesus as a Jewish person.  (1a)

NAMES [1]  Ask students to make a list of the names friends and family use for them, eg first name, family name, nicknames. Students can work with a partner to share the meaning and significance of these names. Make available baby name books so students can investigate the meaning of their name. As a class discuss:
- How important are names?
- What do names reveal about a person?
- What do names reveal about a person’s relationships with others?
Ask students if they know any of the names of Jesus. As a class make a list of the names used to describe Jesus, eg Messiah, Light of the world. Go on to investigate the meaning and significance for Christians of these names.  (1a,1b)

JESUS’ BIRTHPLACE  On a map of Israel and a world map locate where Jesus was born and grew up. Discuss: What places did Jesus travel to? View pictures of the landscape and people of Israel. Go on to explore Jesus’ life and record the places he visited on a map of Israel.  (1a)

TRIVIAL PURSUIT  Conduct a game of Trivial Pursuit with questions based on Jesus’ life, eg How many people were fed the day Jesus used a boy’s fish and loaves? What was the name of one of the Pharisees or high priests Jesus encountered in his life?
Discuss the importance of the questions and whether they reveal the answers to questions that people have about Jesus. Students work in groups to develop a list of questions that they believe are important questions for people who want to know about Jesus.  (1a)

JESUS BRAINSTORM  Write the word ‘Jesus’ on the board and for five minutes have students brainstorm everything they know about him. Sort these ideas into facts and beliefs. Students list questions they would like to research about Jesus. Assign different questions to pairs to investigate. Use a range of resources, including, artwork, songs, hymns, non-fiction texts and Bibles.  (1a)

TIME LINE: JESUS’ LIFE  As a class brainstorm a list of events in Jesus’ life. Write on cards the events of Jesus’ life and give one to each student or to a group of students. Each student holds the card so others can see it. Make a masking-tape line on the floor of the classroom and ask students to place the events in chronological order along the line. Discuss what is listed and whether there are any major omissions. Discuss what students would like to find out.  (1a)

WHY DID JESUS BECOME A HUMAN?  Discuss in groups: Christians believe Jesus is God. If this is true, what reasons can you suggest why Jesus came to earth as a human being?
Make a class list of reasons.  (1b)

NOBODY’S PERFECT: Can anybody be absolutely perfect? Why or why not?
Discuss the students’ responses and why students believe people can or cannot be perfect. Ask students: Does it matter whether or not people are perfect? Consider the consequences of people’s imperfect lives. Introduce the Christian belief that Jesus lived a perfect human life. Ask students if they know about this Christian belief and why Jesus did this. Go on to investigate what Christians believe about Jesus’ living perfectly and fulfilling God’s law for all people.  (1b)
Jesus brought God’s loving rule into the world

RECONCILIATION [1]  As a class work out a definition of the word ‘reconciliation’. Students share experiences of reconciliation and brainstorm words associated with experiences of reconciliation, eg sadness, forgiveness, happiness.
Continue with an investigation of Jesus’ life and explore his teachings about reconciliation with God and between people. (2a, 2b)

GOD’S KINGDOM [1]  Students write or draw their own definition of the word ‘kingdom’. Use dictionaries to check their definitions and develop a class definition of the word ‘kingdom’.
Tell students that Christians believe that Jesus came to bring God’s kingdom (rule) to people. Go on to explore what Jesus taught about God’s kingdom. How is it similar to and different from earthly kingdoms? (2a)

DIFFERENT REACTIONS  Students work in groups to develop a role-play which depicts a range of responses to a particular event, eg an accident, a sport victory. After each role-play provide time for students to interview the people in the role-play to explore why they reacted in the way they did. As a class discuss:
- Do all people react to events or experiences in the same way? Why or why not?
- What affects the way someone reacts to an event or experience?
Go on to explore stories about Jesus and the way various people reacted to Jesus’ words and actions. (2b)

JESUS’ LOVE [1]  Students use dictionaries to define agape love. Discuss with students how people might show agape love or care for someone, eg a hug, tell them. Ask students to consider what might be the best way for God to show people that he loves them.
Discuss students’ responses and lead on to an investigation of the Christian belief that God gave Jesus to the world to show people how much he loves them. (2b)

QUOTE THAT  Display a range of famous quotes and the names of people who made them famous, eg
- ‘Never give up, Never give up, Never give up.’ Winston Churchill.
- ‘Life wasn’t meant to be easy.’ Malcolm Fraser.

‘Just do it!’ Unknown Reebok advertising agent.
Students may be able to add to the list. Discuss:
- Why are some sayings remembered?
- In what ways could famous quotes be considered helpful?
Ask students if they know of any famous quotes or sayings of Jesus Christ. Record students’ suggestions on a class list. Go on to read and research stories about Jesus and recording Jesus’ sayings or teachings. Students may also use a concordance (and various Bible translations) to check the accuracy of the quotations they suggested. (2b)

Jesus died and rose again to save all people from sin and death

GOOD NEWS  Students work with a partner to each share a story of the best news they have ever heard. Discuss as a class:
- What news is good news?
- What would be the best news you could ever hear?
Read the beginning of Mark’s gospel, Mark 1:1. Ask students what they know about Jesus Christ and what people might consider to be the ‘good news’ about him. Go on to read Mark’s gospel and record what he presents as the ‘good news’ about Jesus. (3a, 3b, 2b)

THE GOSPELS REVEAL JESUS  As a class define the term ‘gospel’ as used for the first four books of the New Testament.
Divide the class into four groups. Each group investigates the publisher’s introduction to one of the gospels. Provide different Bible translations so that a range of information can be gathered. Students list information about their gospel, eg author, audience, purpose.
Go on to read, investigate and compare the key events in each gospel. (3a)

CENTRE OF THE CHRISTIAN FAITH  Students listen to the chorus of the song Jesus Christ Superstar.
Use the song to highlight Jesus Christ as central to the Christian faith. Discuss:
- What do people know about Jesus?
- Who do people think Jesus is?
- What do Christians believe Jesus came to do?
Use the discussion to formulate questions about Jesus as the centre of the Christian faith. (3b)
HEROES  Listen to songs with the theme of heroes, eg Mariah Carey, Hero or Bette Midler’s Wind beneath My Wings. Discuss the characteristics of heroes. Students list people they would consider to be their heroes. (3b)
GOD SAVED PEOPLE THROUGH JESUS

1. God’s Son became a human being to save the world

GOSPEL STUDY Study one of the gospels to explore the events in Jesus’ life.
- What is the theme of the gospel?
- Who was the audience?
- What events are recorded?
- What does the gospel reveal about Jesus? (1a,2b,3a)

PEOPLE IN JESUS’ LIFE Brainstorm a list of people in Jesus’ life, eg Mary, Joseph, Peter, Matthew, Zacchaeus, Nicodemus, Mary Magdalene, Pilate. The students could skim through the gospels to develop the list.
Students choose one person to research and develop a character profile. The profile includes a ‘photo’, personal information, and a description of their relationship with Jesus and the difference Jesus made to their life. (1a,2b)

JESUS’ LIFE JOURNEY Choose one of the gospels and assign a chapter or chapters to groups or individuals to read and report on. Ensure that the entire gospel is read. Each student or group develops a series of pictures to depict Jesus’ life journey as related in their chapter or chapters. Display these pictures in chronological order as a wall mural in the classroom. Each student or group can briefly explain the major events of their chapter/s.
Discuss:
- What do you think were the most important events in Jesus’ life journey?
- In what ways did Jesus change people’s lives?

Christians believe that Jesus was both God and a human being.
- In what ways is Jesus presented as human?
- In what ways is Jesus presented as God?
- What do you think Jesus’ mission on earth was? (1a,2b,3a)

I AM Use a Bible concordance to find Jesus’ ‘I am’ statements. Use Bible Handbooks and encyclopedias to explore what the ‘I am’ statements reveal about Jesus’ identity and his purpose on earth. Students create symbols to depict these images of Jesus. (1b,3b)

NAMES [2] Use the list of Jesus’ names from the introductory activity and assign one or more of the names to groups of students. (See Bible References Menu for readings about Jesus’ identity.) Each group investigates:
- What is the literal meaning of the name?
- What does the name reveal about Jesus?
- What does the name mean to Christians?
Each group reports on their investigation to the class. (1a)

JESUS WAS A JEW [2] Use Bible encyclopedias to investigate the life of Jewish people in Jesus’ time. Students gather pictures and information about Israel to develop a contextual understanding of the setting of the gospels. The Jew Called Jesus by R Crotty is a useful resource.
Discuss:
- What things would Jesus have valued growing up in a Jewish family?
- What celebrations and festivals would Jesus have participated in?
- What experiences were a part of Jesus’ daily life? (1a)

JESUS: GOD AND HUMAN Skim the gospel of Luke and make a list of those actions and events that reveal Jesus as God and those that reveal him as a human being, eg God: conception by the Holy Spirit, miracles, resurrection; human: awareness of pain, temptation, emotion, death.
Students study Luther’s Small Catechism to explore what Lutherans believe about Jesus as God and human. Discuss:
- What do Christians believe about Jesus’ identity?
- Why do you think it is important for Christians that they believe that Jesus was both God and human? (1a)

JESUS PORTRAYED IN FILMS Examine and compare films about the life of Jesus, eg Jesus Christ Superstar, Jesus of Nazareth. Students consider what the films reveal about Jesus. Activities could include viewing the way four different films present the same event in Jesus’ life. What does each film emphasise about the event? How is Jesus portrayed in each film? Students compare the film presentation of Jesus with one of the gospels. (1a,2a)
BIG QUESTIONS Write the following statements about Jesus on the board:
- He was just a kind, good man.
- He must have been a mad man.
- The story about Jesus is just a fairytale.
Tell students that Jesus is one of the most argued about persons in history.
Ask students to choose one of the statements to investigate and consider its validity. Students work in groups to study various events in Jesus’ life such as his birth, relationships, miracles, death and resurrection. They gather evidence in support and against their statement.
The results of their investigation may be presented in groups.
Discuss as a class:
- Why might people call Jesus a mad man?
- What evidence is in the gospels that suggests that Jesus was more than just a good man? (1a,2b,3b)

FOUR GOSPELS, FOUR STORIES OF JESUS Students read and explore how each gospel develops the story about Jesus. This can be completed in the following ways:
- Choose stories which appear in all gospels and read and compare the way each story is presented. Discuss the differences and similarities and consider the author’s message and purpose in presenting the story, eg Feeding the five thousand Matthew 14:13–21 Mark 6:30–44 Luke 9:12–17 John 6:1–15.
- View a film about Jesus which is based on one of the gospels. Have students conduct a film and text study. Students view the film in segments and read and investigate the related section in the Bible. Students explore the message of the film-maker and the message of the gospel writer.
- Students choose one of the gospel accounts to read. Students each keep a reading log as they read, recording their comments and questions. Integrate with English and provide time for students to be involved in varied reading activities and to discuss in groups what they are reading. Each student can prepare a report about the gospel they have read. (1a,2a,2b,3a,3b)

JESUS’ MISSION Explore in Luke’s gospel the events of Jesus’ life that point to his mission on earth, eg his birth, presentation at the temple, miracles, teaching, Gethsemane, his death and resurrection (see Bible References Menu). Students use Bible handbooks to develop an understanding of the events. Explore the following questions:
- What did people say about Jesus in the stories?
- What did Jesus say about his mission on earth? (Matthew 18:11; Mark 10:32–34; John 10:10b)
- Why do you think Jesus said ‘It is finished’ on the cross?
- Who do you think decided that Jesus would die?
- How does Paul reflect on Jesus’ mission in Colossians 1:15–22 and 1 Timothy 1:15?
- What do Christians believe about why Jesus came? (1b,3b)

PROPHECIES FULFILLED Explore Old Testament prophecies that predict the coming of the Saviour, eg Isaiah 7:14; Isaiah 9:6,7; Isaiah 53; Micah 5:2. Students develop a profile of what the prophets said the Saviour would be like.
Read sections of Luke’s gospel, eg Jesus’ birth and death. Students record information about Jesus, eg his birthplace, name, suffering. Compare the profile of the prophets with the events recorded in Luke.
- How do the prophecies influence your understanding of events in Jesus’ life?
- What do the prophecies help you understand about Jesus? (1a,3b)

Jesus brought God’s loving rule into the world

JESUS THE TEACHER Read and use Bible handbooks to study Jesus’ Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5:1 – 7:29. Which issues concerned Jesus most? How relevant are these issues today? What methods would Jesus use to communicate his message today?
Students choose one of Jesus’ teachings to rewrite in their own words. (2a,2b)

STORIES ABOUT JESUS Read to the students a range of picture books about events and people from the gospels, eg The Nativity by J Vivas, The Story of Zacchaeus by M Figley. As you read each text, discuss the way the author and illustrator have interpreted the story. Compare the story with the biblical text. Has the author embellished or changed the Bible story? If so, in what ways has it been changed?
Students choose a story from the gospels to write as a picture book. Encourage students to use Bible handbooks and encyclopedias to... investigate the story, its characters and significance. Discuss ways in which the books can be presented, using the picture books as models. Share the picture books with another class. (2b)

WAS JESUS WHAT PEOPLE EXPECTED? Investigate groups of Jews, eg the Pharisees, the Sadducees, the Zealots and the Essenes. Students read stories from the gospels (See Bible References Menu) and imagine the way the different groups might have reacted to Jesus’ teaching or actions. Use the following questions to guide the investigation:
- What type of Saviour was each group expecting?
- In what ways was Jesus different from what they expected?
- How did Jesus challenge their ideas about God? (2a,1a)

RECONCILIATION[2] Investigate people in Jesus’ time who experienced prejudice or injustice. Study a range of stories about Jesus to explore how Jesus responded to these people. See Jesus’ Associates in Bible References Menu. Investigate and discuss:
- What do Jesus’ actions teach us about reconciliation?
- What was Jesus’ greatest act of reconciliation?
Students keep a file on what they learn about reconciliation. (2a)

GOD’S KINGDOM[2] Christians believe that Jesus revealed what God’s kingdom is like and established God’s kingdom through his actions and teachings. Investigate Jesus’ parables of the lost coin, the lost sheep and the lost son (Luke 15:1–32) to develop an image of God’s kingdom. Students create puppet plays to share the stories with other students. (2a)

JESUS’ LOVE[2] Students read and investigate stories in which Jesus shows great love for people. Students work in groups to develop role-plays about the stories. Discuss the points of view of different people in the story. How do they respond to Jesus? What do the stories reveal about God’s love for people? (2a)

JESUS’ MIRACLES Make a list of Jesus’ miracles and sort them by discussing:
- Which miracles demonstrate Jesus’ power over nature?
- Which miracles demonstrate Jesus’ power over disease?
- Which miracles demonstrate Jesus’ power over death?

- Which miracles demonstrate Jesus concern for people?

GOSPEL ACCOUNTS OF JESUS’ DEATH AND RESURRECTION As a class conduct a comparative study of the gospels’ account of Jesus’ death and resurrection. See Bible References Menu. Have students create four columns, one for each gospel, in a double page of their books. They read and list the key events of each gospel in the appropriate column. Tell students to also record Jesus’ words in each account. Discuss:
- What details are the same in all accounts?
- What details differ in the accounts?
- How would you describe Jesus as he is shown in each account?
- Why do Christians believe Jesus was born to die?
- What does Jesus’ death and resurrection mean for all people? (3a,3b)

WHY JESUS DIED Students explore what the epistle writers say about Jesus’ death. See Why Jesus died in the Bible References Menu. (3b)
JESUS DIED FOR US  Read Luke’s account of Jesus’ death and record the key events. View Franco Zeffirelli’s film depiction of Jesus’ death and record the key events. Compare the film with the gospel, using questions such as:

- What is the message of the gospel writer?
- What is the message of the film-maker?
- How is Jesus presented in the gospel and film?
- Which account helped develop your understanding of the death of Jesus?  (3b)

HYMNS AND SONGS ABOUT JESUS  Read hymns and contemporary songs to explore and record what people have written about Jesus’ death and resurrection. Consider:

- What events in Jesus’ life are described?
- What do Christians believe about Jesus’ death and resurrection?
- How has Jesus affected the lives of the writers of the hymns or songs?

Students choose one song to write and illustrate as a poster. The posters could form an Easter display in the worship centre or be combined in a big book. Alternatively, students could create illustrated OHTs of the songs which can be used in worship.  (3b,1a,2b)

KEY CHRISTIAN BELIEFS  Students study the second part of the Apostles’ Creed (see Luther’s Small Catechism) and compile a list of ‘Key Christian Beliefs’ about Jesus’. Students read a range of contemporary Christian magazines to explore what Christians say about Jesus, and compare these with their Key Christian Beliefs list.  (3b)

JESUS’ GOOD NEWS  Students read the gospel of Mark as investigative reporters exploring the questions:

- How does Mark show that Jesus was ‘good news’ for people?
- How did different people react to the good news?
- What does Mark suggest is the good news about Jesus for all people?

Students develop a ‘Good News’ newspaper based on the events of Mark’s gospel.  (3a,3b)

WHAT CHRISTIANS SAY TODAY  Arrange to interview a number of Christians to explore what they believe about Jesus and what they believe he has achieved for them.  (3b,2b)

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

BIBLE VERSE  Students learn an appropriate Bible verse (see page 11).

SONGS  Students learn songs about Jesus (see Music and Worship Ideas in the appendix).

TIME LINE  (A recommended activity for Level 1) If the class is developing a time line for Christian Studies, develop a time line of Jesus’ life. Include important events and teachings on the time line.

GOD FILE  (A recommended activity for Level 2) If the class is developing a God File, add information to the file about what Jesus taught concerning God and his kingdom.
GOD SAVED PEOPLE THROUGH JESUS

MENU

RESPONSE ACTIVITIES

1  God’s Son became a human being to save the world

JESUS’ LIFE  Students create storyboards depicting major events in Jesus’ life. Consider the use of colour, surroundings, facial expression and body language to tell the story.  (1a)

SONGS ABOUT JESUS  Students listen to and read a range of songs and hymns about Jesus. What message about Jesus do they convey? They compose their own song about Jesus.  (1a)

WHO IS JESUS?  Students use the information gathered about Jesus to present a school worship or write an editorial article for the school newsletter entitled ‘Who is Jesus?’  (1a)

BOARD GAME  Students develop a board game about the life, teachings, works and person of Jesus. Students consider how they can make the game challenging, inspirational and educational. Challenge students to go beyond the ‘Trivial Pursuit’ type of game (see Introductory activity).  (1a)

JESUS NEWS  Students write a series of newspaper headlines to tell the story of why Jesus came to earth and what he did while he was here.  (1b)

POETRY  Students study poems and prayers written about the life of Jesus, eg Jesus Our Future by Bruce Prewer. Students write their own poems to express their thoughts on the life of Jesus and why he came to earth.  (1a,1b)

2  Jesus brought God’s loving rule into the world

JESUS BRINGS GOD’S LOVE  Review events in Jesus’ life where he brought God’s love to people, eg the miracles, the ‘lost’ parables, his death and resurrection. Discuss:
- What words would you use to describe such love?
- What images would you use to depict it visually?
Students create sculptures, paintings or symbols that depict God’s love as shown in Jesus.  (2a)

JESUS SPEAKS OUT  Students identify contemporary issues in the newspapers on which Jesus would speak out. What do you think he would challenge people to do? Jesus used stories to tell people about God’s views on issues. Students write parables that Jesus might use and tell today about contemporary issues.  (2b)

JESUS SPEAKING AT AN EVENT NEAR YOU  Students design an advertising poster to promote an upcoming event where Jesus will be the guest speaker. In the poster include information about Jesus’ life or his qualities that would attract or arouse interest within people.  (2a)

REFLECTION  Conduct a quiet reflection on the unit. Play some soft music and ask students to think about the activities of the unit. To guide the reflection use questions such as:
- What was the most important thing you learnt about Jesus?
- How would you describe Jesus to someone else?
- Which story or activity made the greatest impact on you?
- Complete the sentence: Jesus is . . .

At the completion of the reflection students may choose to make a written response.  (2a,2b)

AN AUSTRALIAN JESUS  Study artwork from countries that depicts Jesus in different ways. Discuss the ways in which people have presented Jesus in their context, eg Papua New Guinea paintings of Jesus with brown skin, paintings of Jesus in contemporary settings.

Discuss the Australian context and any special understanding of Jesus that Australians might have. Students create artwork that shows Jesus in an Australian context.  (2b)
Jesus died and rose again to save all people from sin and death.

EASTER MURAL Students design a mural that could be displayed at Easter that captures the story and message of Jesus’ death and resurrection. (3a,3b)

STAINED-GLASS WINDOW Students make a stained-glass window display presenting the message of Jesus’ death and resurrection. (3a,3b)

BORN TO DIE Discuss:
- What is Jesus’ greatest achievement?
- Why would Christians believe Jesus’ death was his greatest achievement? (3b)

EASTER WORSHIP Students develop a school worship session that communicates the Christian beliefs about Jesus’ death and resurrection. Choose appropriate songs and Bible readings. Consider using an Easter drama (eg from Verena Johnson’s Let’s Make A Scene series) to share the message. (3b)

MY LIFE Allow time for students to reflect or meditate on what they think and believe about Jesus. Students develop personal statements:
- ‘I believe Jesus is . . .’
- ‘This means that . . .’ (3b)
The introduction to LIFE contains suggested general resources for all LIFE concepts. The following resources may be used to develop a unit about God saved people through Jesus.

Some of these resources may be out of print. They are listed because they (or others similar to them) may be found in school libraries.

Preview these and any other resources you intend using to be sure that they are appropriate for your students.
