STUDENT QUESTIONS

- Examine themselves and reflect on how they could use their gifts and talents to build community in the school. Create a book to show how to solve problems in the playground.
- Investigate the Christian belief that love and forgiveness are the basis for positive relationships and healthy communities. Who is my neighbour and how can I help them?
- Create a code of conduct for “living in community” in the classroom. (Tribe Rules) – 10 commandments for friendships

Identify Specific Knowledge Students Need to Achieve the Outcome ("students know…")

God creates people
- God creates and loves all people – male/female, young/old, Christians/non-Christians, all cultures
- all people are equal because they are made by God – unique individuals with gifts and talents
- God creates people with the ability and freedom to make choices
- God places individuals in different communities

God’s plan for community living
- community is part of God’s plan for people
- people need community – community builds individuals
  - people in community respect one another – their uniqueness and difference
  - people help each other and learn from one another in community
  - there are responsibilities for living in community

There are broken communities because people are sinful
- God gave the ten commandments to protect and build community and to teach people how to live together
- God forgives people who fail in community

|                                          | Students brainstorm the ways they can help people to feel loved and valued e.g think about the things you can say or do. Role play these suggestions. Discuss how being valued makes you feel. |
|                                          | Give students a written on card with the Bible verse: ‘You are precious in my eyes and special, and I love you” (Isaiah 43:4b TEV). Students write a personal response, |

Differentiation
- By outcome & teaching input (for all weeks)
Week 3: Friendship & relationships

expressing their feelings about receiving this message. Include answers to questions such as: 'Who do you think would feel this way about you? Why would someone say something like this to you? Share responses. At the end reveal the sender of the message.

- 'A good friend' p.12

Working in groups, identify the 5 most important characteristics of being a good friend. Each student in the group chooses a characteristic and illustrates what it looks like. Students discuss:

- What does a ‘good friend’ do to make you feel special?
- How do you show that you value this person and their friendship?

-Explore the Christian belief that human relationships are part of God’s plan.

*Bible references: Genesis 2:18-24
God sets the lonely in families - Psalm 68:6a
The first sin – Genesis 3, mixed families – Joseph, Single parent family – Widow of Zarapeth, Babies given away and adopted - Moses
Cain & Abel

Week 4: Neighbours

Choose two activities from the following, to explore the concept of neighbours:

1. Students draw a map which illustrates their home and the homes in their street. Include the names and names & pictures of neighbours they know. Write a short paragraph attached to their picture to describe the relationship (or do not have) with their neighbours.
2. Invite a speaker from a neighbourhood program (ie Neighbourhood watch, Safety houses) to talk about the importance of their program and the ways people can be helpful neighbours.
3. Invite a grandparent to talk about the importance of neighbours when they were children. Compare past to present. Discuss reasons for change.
4. Explore & illustrate the diversity of neighbourhoods e.g. high-rise building, suburbs, rural communities, caravan parks.

Go on to explore the meaning of ‘neighbour’ in the New Testament. Who is my neighbour?

*Treat others as you want them to treat you: Matthew 7:12

Possible use of BLM Good Samaritan sheets in resource folder. Role play: A group of young kids walk past an old lady who has dropped her handbag. What do you do? -3 different endings. Different scenarios to each group.

Week 5: Conflicts in relationships.

Choose from following activities:

1. Small groups- examine pictures from newspapers or picture sets of people in conflict situations. Use stimulus to create a story. Include - who the people are, what conflict is about, cause, the result, impact on others.
2. Make a list of the causes of arguments in families or between friends. How are these
Week 6; My family

1. Students discuss:
   - the things they like most about their family,
   - ways their family shows love to each other. Complete question 1 & 2 on BLM ‘In my family’ p. 51. Share responses. Or discuss Joseph and his family. Divide page in 4, draw Joseph and his family, when was it difficult to show love, what he did, his dreams.

2. Why does God want people to live in families? Are all families the same? (Single parent, different care givers, step families etc). What sort of families do we see on T.V? (Simpsons, Home & Away, Neighbours etc)- discuss as examples- are these families always happy? Are they good example of real life families? (Link back to previous lesson) (Use this as an introduction to looking at the benefits Christians believe God intends for people by placing them in families).

As a class read and discuss questions 3 & 4 on previous activity sheet. Complete
Week 7: Roles & purposes of families

- Responses to questions in small groups or individually. Share responses as a class. Or Me and my family. Divide page in 4. Draw family members, when it is difficult to show love, what do you do, you’re dreams

- ‘Roles & responsibilities in families’ p.13
  Draw responsibilities of family members. Discuss who is responsible for the various tasks or roles. Invite people from a variety of family structures (e.g. sole-parent families, large families where there are many siblings, extended families) to describe their family to the students, including who is responsible for various tasks. OR Set as a homework task for each student to discuss at home and report back to a small group in class. Students discuss what happens when family responsibilities are not met. List scenarios. Who is affected? Why? What can be done to rectify the situation? Examine Bible teachings about roles and responsibilities in families.

  Bible ref’s from p.10- Purpose of families:

  - Genesis 2: 18-24
  - Deuteronomy 4:9
  - Psalm 68: 6a
  - Proverbs 22:6 Ephesians 6:1-3

- ‘Family stories’ p.13 & Families in the Bible ref p. 10 (below)

  - Abraham & Lot Genesis 13:1-12, 14-18
  - Abraham & Sarah Genesis 17:1-21
  - Elisha & the widow 2 Kings 4:1-7
  - Ruth & Naomi Ruth 1:1-18
  - The forgiving father Luke 15:11-32
  - The wedding at Cana John 2:1-11
  - Mary, Martha & Lazarus John 11:1-44

Week 8: Our school & community

- ‘Our school’ from p.13 LIFE ‘God creates human relationships’
  Students work in pairs to list the most important roles of people at school, e.g. class teacher, students, principal, parents, canteen ladies, pastor, teacher assistant. Make a list of the responsibilities to the school community people in these roles have. Possible guest speakers to talk to the students about their roles and responsibilities at the school. Explore the Christian belief that God provides social structures for the welfare of people. OR:
  - Guest speaker- Pastor Joe to students about his role in the school / church. ??

- ‘Occupations’
  Make a class list of occupations (paid & unpaid) of students parents / caregivers. Students write invitations to parents inviting them to talk to the students about their work or provide this information in some other way (homework: interview parent?). Go on to explore the Christian belief that God provides roles for people in the community
Week 9: God loves all people

which are part of the way God cares for people.
- more activities listed on p. 14 LIFE ‘God creates human relationships’ (Joseph & his family, Servants of Lot & Abraham - conflict & resolution)

- ‘Jesus’ attitude to people from various cultures’ from p. 11 LIFE

Tell students you are going to read a story about a woman who knew what it is like to have other people think you are no good just because you come from another place. Tell the story of Jesus & a Samaritan woman (John 4:3-42). Students imagine the reaction of Jesus’ disciples when they saw Jesus talking to the Samaritan woman, remembering that Samaritans and Jews were enemies and that a Jewish teacher would not speak to a woman in public. How would Jesus’ actions have changed them and their attitude to Samaritans & to women? Students create or write a diary entry from the viewpoint of Jesus’ disciples, or illustrate the changes which may have taken place in the town of Sychar as a result from this visit from Jesus. Reflect on Jesus’ love for all people. Further Bible ref’s demonstrating this:

- Roman officer’s servant Matthew 8:5-13
- A Canaanite woman Matthew 15:21-28
- A demon-possessed man Mark 5:1-21
- The good Samaritan Luke 10:25-37
- A Samaritan woman John 4:3-42

2nd session - finish above OR:
- ‘No difference in God’s sight’ p.11 ???-page
